Used Book Sale is back! - Fall Fun Book Sale & More!

- We are gearing up and ready to go! The Used Book Sale Committee has made plans to try a slightly different approach to the book sale.
- The Used Book Sale, the first since June, 2019, will be Friday, September 23, 10 - 5 and Saturday, September 24, 10 - noon.
- A new format is being tried for this sale. Friends will be on hand to accept donations of books, CDs and DVDs on the following dates; September 16 & 17 from 10:30 - 12:30 and September 21 from 4 - 6. With help from our kind donors, this will allow us to take in items we can possibly sell.
- We will be able to store items in the Community Room for set-up on September 21 & 22, thus avoiding taking the items downstairs. (Something that is a stumbling block for us.) It is expected this will be a more modest sale than past years.
- We will be looking for your help, especially from September 21 - 24. A call-out to sign up to help will be coming to you soon. Members may also sign up at the Annual Meeting.
- We will be asking for the loan of long folding tables to help us at the sale.
- We may have the help of some enthusiastic students to help move the books we have in the basement for us.
- And some young ambassadors to greet shoppers, tell them about our library and sell cider and doughnuts! (We thank Jaime for coordinating with the students. Isn't this a great idea?)
- Thank you to committee members Jaime Barnes, Rita & Joe Battocletti, Linda Brick, Sue Glover and Heidi Luebke.
